

Brandom and Pragmatism

11-12 April 2013 / Alcalá de Henares Madrid

Supported by Franklin Institute (Universidad de Alcalá de Henares) and Research Program Inferentialism as Social Epistemology (MINECO FFI2011-23267).

Organized by ceDe (Centro de Estudios Dewey en España) and Research Program Frames of Understanding: A Pragmatist View of Norms and Forms of Life (MINECO FFI2012-38009-Co2-01 + 02)

Directors: Julio Seoane (UAH) and Ramón del Castillo (UNED)

THURSDAY 11, Calle Colegios 2, Alcalá de Henares

9:30 Serafín Vegas (Franklin Institute, UAH)

Opening Remarks

10:00 Robert Brandom (University of Pittsburgh)

Perspectives on Pragmatism

11:30 COFFEE

12:00 Bjørn Ramberg (Oslo University)

Pragmatism and its Narratives: Brandom, Rorty and the Construction of Philosophical Histories

14:00 LUNCH

15:30 Jesus Vega (UAM)

Epistemic concepts: What are they for? Some Reflections on the Nature and Role of our Concept of Knowledge

17:00 Nalliely Hernández (CONACYT-México)

New Existential Commitments in Science

18:30 Debate: Perspectives on Brandom

Fernando Broncano (Univ. Carlos III), Antonio Gómez (Univ. Carlos III)
Carlos Thiebaut (Univ. Carlos III), Julio Seoane (UAH)

FRIDAY 12, Calle Colegios 2, Alcalá de Henares

10:00 Jesús Zamora Bonilla and Javier González de Prado (UNED)

On Inferentialism and Naturalism

11:30 COFFEE

12:00 Ángel Faerna (UCLM)

On Norms and Social Practices: Brandom, Dewey and the Demarcation Question

14:00 LUNCH

16:00 Santiago Rey (New School for Social Research)

Dewey and Brandom on the Poetic Dimension of Language

17:30 Ramón del Castillo (UNED)

A Tale of Two Hedgehogs: Brandom and Rorty on Anti-Authoritarianism

19:00 COFFEE

19:30 Robert Brandom

Final Remarks

INFO

deweycenterspain@institutofranklin.net

Instituto Franklin
de Investigación en Estudios Norteamericanos

ceDe (Centro de Estudios Dewey en España)

